

I regularly travel from North Texas to Oklahoma. Occassionally to Louisiana, Arkansas, Colorado and New Mexico. I have family, friends and acquaintances in other parts of this country. I enjoy the instant access to real time updates of weather...and as odd as it sounds...even traffic reports of the cities around the nation at any time of day. In today's world, the comfort of hearing life is ok all over is welcome.